

Name: _____

Be a Super Star! Cut out the stars below. Read each story or listen carefully while your teacher reads the stories out loud. Glue a star in the blank space after each story that talks about a person who obeys the commandments of God.

Daniel found Mario's ball in the bushes and decided to keep it because he likes it more than he likes his own ball.

Ana kicked her brother's favorite toy airplane and broke it. But she confessed the truth and apologized and then she helped him repair it.

Marcos found some money on the playground at school that someone had dropped. He gave it to his teacher so that she could return it to the owner.

Rosita lost a piece of her sister's puzzle, but she told her sister that their little brother was the one who had lost it.

Luis told his father that the dog had trampled the flowers in the garden when it had actually been Luis who did it. Later, Luis asked Jesus for forgiveness for having lied and he told his father the whole truth.

Pedro wants to go and play at the house of his friend Miguel. He told his mother that he had finished his homework, but the truth is that he only did half of his homework and later plans to do the rest.

Lily saw that Emma forgot her doll at church. Lily really likes Emma's doll, but she's going to find her friend Emma and return the doll to her.

