

Adam and Eve disobeyed God; they made a bad decision, but God still loved them. Today your child learned that when people make bad decisions, that always brings bad consequences. Although sometimes we do wrong, God continues to love us. Talk with your child about how Adam and Eve disobeyed their Creator. Then, help them paste the figures, which are found below, in the correct order into the boxes. Help your child think about how they can make right decisions and obey God.
