

"This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him." (1 John 4:9)