

We'll do what the Lord has Said

Moses and all the Israelites set up their tents at the base of Mount Sinai. And Moses went up the mountain to meet God. Jehovah called to Moses from the mountain and said,

"This is what you are to say to the descendants of Jacob and what you are to tell the people of Israel, 'You yourself have seen what I did to Egypt, and how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now if you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession. Although the whole earth is mine, you will be for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' These are the words you are to speak to the Israelites."

Then Moses went back to the people and summoned the elders and he told them what God had said. And they, in turn, spoke to the people and they told them what God had said. The people all responded together,

"We'll do everything the Lord has said."
