

Who is the AUTHORITY?

What do you LOSE by obeying?

What do you GAIN by obeying?

Tim's parents asked him to go with them to visit his great-grandmother who lives in a nursing home. "I don't like going to that place. I've only seen her a couple of times and I don't really know her," he replied. "Besides, there's a game on T.V. today that I wanted to watch."

Luis and Bryan saw an old man with a cane walking down the street. "Let's go scare him and threaten to steal his cane!" Luis said. When Bryan said he didn't think they should, Luis replied, "There's nothing wrong with that. We won't hurt him, just scare him a little."

At school, Rita saw a little girl drop some money out of her pocket. Since no one had seen what happened, she picked up the money and put it in her pocket. An inner voice told her, "Return that money to the little girl."

For many months Phil worked and saved money to buy a new bicycle. At last he had the money he needed. In his devotional he read Malachi which talk about tithing. But he had never tithed. "If I give my tithe, I can't buy the bicycle now and I'll have to wait several more weeks," Phil thought.

Brenda was riding her bicycle home and decided to take a shortcut. Suddenly, she came to a sign that said "Bridge Closed". Brenda thought, "That sign is only for cars. I can cross the bridge with my bicycle."
