

What Happened?

What could the Holy Spirit teach us in these situations? Should you do something different the next time?

For me it is difficult to talk about Jesus to my friends; most of them do not go to church. I felt I should invite them, so on Sunday I prayed, asking the Holy Spirit to show me the right time and place to ask them. This morning I felt it was time, so I invited my friend Kurt. You know what? He said he would like to go with me! Now I feel ashamed for having felt so afraid.

I know I should not spend time with people who invite me to do bad things. But I read in the Bible that the Holy Spirit will protect me from bad influences. He will not let me be tempted more than I can bear. So, what's the problem if I hang out with those people? I can face them!

The Holy Spirit helps me make good decisions. So the other day when I faced a temptation, I asked God not to let me fall. Since the Holy Spirit didn't stop me, I assumed there was no problem doing it. So, why did my parents get so angry?
