

What should we do when we sin?

Well, we have several options.

We can ignore our sin and pretend that all is well.

Sooner or later, we will have to face the consequences of our sin.

We can blame someone else, but at some point we'll have to face the truth.

Aren't we responsible for our decisions?

Yeah, that's right. We can't blame others for the decisions we make.

We could offer to do some work at the church.

Maybe we'd feel better doing that, but forgiveness isn't earned by doing good things.

What should we do?

"Then Saul said to Samuel, 'I have sinned. I violated the Lord's command and your instructions. I was afraid of the men and so I gave in to them.'
(1 Samuel 15:24)

"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness."
(1 John 1:9)
