

WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF YOU FACED PERSECUTION?

1.

In your social science class they are talking about heroes. A student says that it is a pity that the heroes die. You comment that Christian heroes continue to live even after death. The teacher looks at you in surprise and asks you, "You don't believe that there is life after death, right?"

What would you do?

2.

A group of students at your school are talking about a classmate that you know is a Christian. They make fun of her because of her beliefs and they want you to join them.

What can you do?

3.

It is the near future and they are imprisoning Christians for their faith. Suddenly, you learn that some policemen are looking for you.

What would you do?

