Share the "Good News"

Answer these questions together with your class:

How can you use your hands, feet and lips this week to spread the Good News about the resurrection of Christ?

Who can you tell the Good News to this week?

Make a list of everything that you think is important for people to hear.