

Acts
2:42-47*The Community of Believers*

After Pentecost, those who believed in Jesus were different. “They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles.

All the believers were together and had everything in common. They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need.

Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.” (Acts 2:42-47).

What feeling did the believers have for others?

---

What did the Apostles do?

---

What did the believers do?

---

What was God doing?

---

How did other people feel about the new Christians?

---