

Showing compassion to the needy

Carefully look at each of the drawings and do what your teacher tells you. Then answer the questions your teacher asks you, and finish the story by writing how you can work together with God to show compassion to someone.

Story 1

There is a student in the class who uses hearing aids to help him hear; he also uses very thick glasses. Some students make fun of him. They say that he sounds weird when he talks.
